KNOWLEDGE CASE

TWENTY YEARS IN COURT

There is a case on the docket of the superior court in this county that is still unsettled, although it was started nearly 20 years ago. It developed over a horse, a well-bred stallion named Knowl, owned by a person of considerable length.

With a view to raising the standard of horses in this section a man named Reynolds came here and endeavored to organize the Cleveland Bay Horse Co. The company was never organized nor any stock issued, but some notes given by one G. C. Raymond to Reynolds were negotiated by the latter, and two of them were made payable by Reynolds to Thomas Howe of New London.

The case is known as Thomas Howe vs. George C. Raymond, et al.

Howe brought suit against Raymond on the notes and the case went to the superior court, Major Hadist A. Hull, now state's attorney, being

ECHOES FROM THE LODGE ROOMS OF LOCAL INTEREST

Inter-Encampment Meeting

March 16 was a "business" day for the Encampment branch of the Odd Fellows of New London county, it being the first of a series of inter-encampment meetings to be held during the next three months at New London, Norwich and Willimantic. Over 200 patriots gathered at Odd Fellows hall in Mystic at 8 o'clock, at which time the Palmyra encampment of Norwich worked the Golden Rule degree in a most impressive manner on a class of candidates from the different camps.

At 6 o'clock a fine banquet was served by the Rebekahs. The menu consisted of roast fresh ham, washed potatoes and turnips, steamed celery, rolls, pickles, olives, pie and coffee, to which everyone did full justice. During the feast an orchestra furnished music. After the banquet the members and guests adjourned to the lodge room where a series of addresses were made by the following grand officers: Grand Patriarch Oscar L. Burdick; Grand Junior Warden Nelson W. Scheldt of Norwich; Grand Treasurer William J. Berge of Stamford; Grand Marshal Orville Recker of Bridgeport; Grand Secretary George W. Smith of Mystic; Grand Herald James Cooper of the Grand Lodge of Connecticut; I. O. O. #### GERMAN GOVT TO SEND TROOPS TO RUHR REGION

Berlin, April 3 (By The A. P.)—The German government announced in a communication to the press that it has resolved to dispatch troops to the Ruhr region as soon as the entente states consent to such a move. The decision was reached after a three hours' cabinet meeting today.

The statement declared that this action was inevitable in view of the unchecked lawlessness in the region about Essen, Dortmund, Duisburg and Krefeld, which it is asserted has now assumed such proportions that the local authorities and the labor leaders admit that they no longer are able to protect the civilian population.

The chancellor said he had received urgent reports from Essen, where terrorist bands were looting food trains for supplies. The looting, he declared, had been discovered by all parties, even the communists and the independent socialists, in the Ruhr district.

If the entente agreed to the entry of the troops, the chancellor continued, they would act purely in a police capacity under the authority of the Prussian Minister of the Interior. Severing.

The Red army's terms are reported to amount to a demand for the complete recognition of the soviet principle.
